The normal palate appearance and midline shift of retropositioned skeletal midfacial cleft. Midline shift of the oro-maxillary-palatine complex in retropositioned cleft lip and palate patients has not been well documented. In this study, three-dimensional computed tomography images of the normal palate and midline shift of the cleft palate at different stages during facial growth were compared. The results showed that the soft palate is not always situated in the midline, and the presence of a cleft palate did not necessarily cause a midline shift. The midline shift might be the result of growth and/or remodeling, rather than just the result of repositioning.Q: HTML5 video plays out of sync I am trying to play a video of ~9 seconds long with HTML5 video on Chrome. Your browser does not support the video tag. I am setting video as height=315 and width=720 and canvas and video start at time=0. But video plays out of sync. In some cases it jumps ahead to 0. In some cases it goes a little behind. I also tried with time parameter set to 1 seconds: Time is 1, so time is starting from the same time in both cases, but still the video gets out of sync. I tried even with the same time I got video playing 1 second earlier. I also tried to set volume of video to 100% and it did not fix the issue. I am not using any plugins and video is at full quality. Is there anything I am missing? Do you have any ideas how to solve this issue? My original video is in H.264 format, I have tried even with H.264 version of the same video. My video has a lot of effect added on top so it is actually a green screen video that has been mixed with a live video and it is difficult to get out of sync that

Q: Find the limit as $x\to \infty$ of $\frac{1}{x^2\sqrt{1+x}+1}$ I want to find the limit as $x\to \infty$ of the following $$\frac{1}{x^2\sqrt{1+x}+1}$$ I've tried multiplying both the numerator and the denominator by the conjugate but it didn't help... Any ideas of how to approach this? Thanks! A: Hint First notice that $$\frac{1}{x^2\sqrt{1+x}+1}=\frac{1}{\sqrt{1+x}+x}-\frac{1}{\sqrt{1+x}+x\sqrt{1+x}}$$ so $$\lim_{x\to\infty} \frac{1}{x^2\sqrt{1+x}+1}=\lim_{x\to\infty}\frac{1}{\sqrt{1+x}+x}-\frac{1}{x\sqrt{1+x}+1}$$ Can you now finish it from here? A: I think it is better to write $$ x^2\sqrt{1+x}+1=x^2(1+x)+1=x^2+(x+1)^2\to 2. $$ So, the limit is $$ \frac{1}{x^2\sqrt{1+x}+1}\to \frac{1}{2}-\frac{1}{2x}=\frac12 $$ The influence of substrate and inhibitors on the degradation rate of polystyrene in-vitro. The degradation rate of polystyrene (PS) particles was determined as a function of the polymer load and in the presence of common organic and inorganic inhibitors. First, the degradation rate of PS particles in an aqueous solution was determined at 37 degrees C with a single-compartment batch reactor system. From this experiment, it is shown that the degradation rate of a PS particle in water is linearly dependent on the polymer load and the second order rate constant of degradation is found to be 4.8 x 10(-7
