The idea for the blog came from one of my workmates. Upon my advice he started a project website and asked if we can have it on Google Wave (google wave is new and we didn't have any experience with it). The next day he told me that he was missing the random blogs that Google Wave was offering. I recommended making his website a Google Wave blog and with the new experience he had with it, it started being a lot of fun doing it. At first it was just a play around, learning the new tool and seeing what works. Now that the blogging is a habit, I decided to start writing about some of the most interesting projects that I see and go through.
